

TERMINOLOGY

Main Account – an account that can be topped up by a Client/Partner using the payment systems.

Bonus Account – a Partner’s account, where the bonus earned from the Partner Program is accrued on.

Promotional Account – a Partner’s account where, the bonus earned by the Partner Program is accrued on and which is equal to the one on the bonus account.

Gift Account – the Client's /Partner’s account, where gifts from the Company are accrued on.

Payment system – a technical infrastructure that provides the transfer of funds to the Client/Partner Main Account.

Balance - the state of the Client/Partner accounts at the Company website.

Balance operation - the operation of the following type: depositing funds to the Main Account, withdrawing funds from the Bonus Account and balance adjustment.

Deposit currency – a currency unit in which the topping up and withdrawal operations are carried out.

Company – RSW INVESTMENT GROUP LTD, (BVI).

Internal rate - the exchange rate of the Company, which is used for topping up, withdrawals funds and balance adjustment.

Personal Account – The customer’s software interface that allows you to make operations with the Client’s/Partner’s accounts: to top up the balance, withdraw funds from the balance; to acquire Company’s products and services; to use Partner tools and to use other functions within the technical capabilities of the Personal Account.

Partner is a Client who was ranked as “Partner” and concluded the Partnership Offer Agreement, and caring about the Company image, who is the user of the Company’s products and services, participating in the promotion of the Company’s projects, who accepted the terms and conditions of the Company’s Partnership Program, the Remuneration and Awards Plan and other Company documents, a partner of Company.

Client is a physical or legal person who have entered into a Client Agreement and expressed his/her desire to become the user of the Company’s products and services, as well as, to the extent possible, to participate in the promotion of the Company's projects.

Potential Clients are persons interested in services, products, projects, involving Company, and who may become Clients, Partners, and Agents of Company. The Potential Clients are included in the Company target market audience.

Agent (as used in a Partnership Agreement) is a Client (Partner) who has accepted the Partnership Offer Agreement and who is also wishing to conduct activities as a Company agent.

Ranks are the corresponding statuses of the participants in the Company Partnership Program, as set out in the Remuneration and Awards Plan.

Company official website - www.skywayinvestgroup.com.

TIP (training information product, - or EIP, CIP - educational / consulting information product) is a package consisting of a limited personal access to the databases (electronic archives, libraries) with "Training and Information Programs". Some of the TIP packages may be supplemented with the bonuses in the form of IEC.

Training and Information Programs are the consulting and training programs of courses, trainings, webinars, seminars, lectures — both online and offline, the passive, interactive and other forms of training, information and advising on the subjects of enhancing business qualities of a person and personal growth, increase of person's investment and financial literacy, as well as person's full development.

Products are prepared exclusively for the educational purposes and do not constitute an offer to purchase or sell, or offer to purchase or sell any securities, financial products, services or investments. Opinions expressed in the products do not constitute formal recommendations on investment, and if necessary, one should seek an independent advice. Any information or any opinion contained in any type of Product, do not constitute an offer or request to buy or sell any securities, futures, options or other financial instruments or to provide any formal investment advice or services.

The Training and Information Programs are not the state professional education, or its official replacement, and do not guarantee employment in the relevant qualification. These programs contain the author's original courses, analytics, information of educational nature, and constitute a private opinion of both the individual authors and groups of authors involved in development of these Programs.

The Training and Information Programs are the private intellectual property owned by Company and its authors. Any reproduction, commercial or non-commercial use in whole or in part, or of individual pieces of these products/product in any form, except for authorized buyer individually (individual viewing or listening) - without the written consent of Company and its authors are prohibited.

IEC is an Internal Electronic Certificate of Company — a gift document confirming the Company's commitment on the awarded gift Bonuses. It is issued to Client during making a purchase as a bonus to some of the Company's products (according to the announced bonus to the chosen product on the Company's website). At the same time, awarding the gift Bonuses to the Company's products does not constitute an obligation of Company. The gift Bonuses apply solely as a Company marketing tool.

Company-operator is a company entrusted by Company to arrange payment and accounting support for the Agent's activities, effecting and keeping payments, and the company Agent can conclude an Agency Agreement with in accordance with the laws of the state of Agent registration. This Partnership Agreement can be the basis for the conclusion of an agreement with the Company-Operator.

Remuneration and Awards Plan - contains the main terms and conditions of the Company Partnership Program, which sets out the procedure for obtaining Ranks by Clients, making the necessary payments, receiving awards and other conditions.